Parking at the Expo

The Greater Philadelphia Expo Center has FREE parking. There are plenty of handicap spaces, but they fill up fast.

Disability walking aids. Strollers and rolling shopping bags

Yes, scooters, wheelchairs and other walking aids are permitted on the show floor. Strollers and rolling bags are also permitted. To prevent tripping incidents, keep all walking aids, strollers and rolling bags close to you making sure enough space is available for those around you.

Children can attend

Children of all ages are welcome to the show. Children 12 and under are free but must be accompanied by an adult at all times.

Food and refreshments

Concessions are available in the Expo Lounge towards the back of HALL C. Vending machines are in the lobbies of both Hall A and B.

Wholesale or retail event

The IBExpos are retail shows, open to the public. The shows also welcome designers, bead shops, etc., seeking to purchase wholesale. To buy wholesale, one must have a valid Re-sale Tax ID certificate from one's state. A Federal EIN certificate is NOT acceptable. Please bring multiple copies of your sale Tax ID certificate. Each vendor from whom you buy wholesale may want to retain a copy of your Tax ID certificate for their tax records. Each vendor will qualify wholesale buyers, their credentials, and will determine their own minimums for such transactions.
